MRS. JOHN MICHAEL GILES
the former Miss Brenda Marshall Trent

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The Memorial United Methodist Church was the setting Saturday evening, July 10, 1971 at 8 p.m. for the double ring marriage ceremony of Miss Brenda Marshall Trent and Mr. John Michael Giles of Appomattox.

The couple was married by the uncle of the bride, Rev. L. A. Trent, pastor of Southview United Methodist Church of Lynchburg, and assisted by Rev. Alfred Eastman, pastor of Memorial United Methodist Church of Appomattox.

Before an altar of palms, candlelight, and white floral arrangements, the bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore a traditional slipper length wedding gown of crystal white silk organza and bands of lace over peau de soie, designed with a molded Empire bodice and a controlled skirt. Lace banded the high Victorian neckline, trimmed the bodice and the side cuffs of the long Bishop sleeves, inset with lace. Lace also encircled the high rise waist above the skirt outlined in scalped lace with the very full detachable train framed in lace. Her bouffant tiered veil of silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of organza and lace petals. She carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and orchids.

The bridesmaids' dresses were rainbow colors of pastel shades made with a molded empire bodice, sleeveless and white Irish lace trimmed the Victorian neckline and bodice front. Their headdress was of matching tulle attached to a ribbon framing allowing ribbon streamers to fall from the back of the headdress. They carried bouquets of white shasta daisies.

Miss Elizabeth Tent, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Russell Millner, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and the other attendants included Miss Susan Oliver, of Red House, Miss Cornelia Guill, of Appomattox, and Mrs. William Woody, of Richmond, sister of the groom. Miss Heather Mitchell, of Williamsburg, cousin of the groom, was the flower girl.

Groomsmen included Mr. Giles' best man and uncle, R. W. Mitchell of Appomattox, Freddie Mitchell of Williamsburg, William Woody of Richmond, Donald Williams and Cecil Nash of Appomattox. Russell E. Millner, Jr., nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

A program of nuptial music was presented by the organist, Miss Nancye Mathews, and soloist, Miss Lucy Martin, of Appomattox. Mrs. L. E. Thomas served as mistress of ceremonies.

The bride's mother wore a pale peach couchman styled dress accented with white decorative trim with white accessories. The groom's mother wore a pink ensemble with matching accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts to a reception in the social hall of the church.

The bride wore for her going away dress, a pale blue Empire waisted dress with long full sleeves and deep fitted cuffs. Her accessories were white and she wore the white orchids removed from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Trent and the groom the son of Mrs. Sarah Burke and the late Harry Byrd Giles, all of Appomattox. Upon their return from their wedding trip, the couple will live in Appomattox.

Hal Bryant

Celebrates 71st Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bryant, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Hunt Hamilton and Danny, Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Banton and Larry, Mr. Herman Bryant, and Mr. Paul Franklin were guests Sunday for a birthday dinner honoring Mr. Hal Bryant's 71st birthday. The dinner was given by Mrs. Bryant and Mr. Bryant's step-daughter, Sandra.

Mr. Bryant is quite a gardender, now, following his retirement in 1970 as custodian at Appomattox Primary School. He combines both the new and the old methods in farming, with both a mule and gasoline driven tiller. Like many other gardeners he says that tomatoes and snap beans are looking good this year.

About being 71, he says, "I feel fine!" Perhaps part of the reason is years of hard work which included learning to plow at the age of eleven and years of sawmill work. To some of his relatives and friends he is known as "Pop!"
